PROPEL EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM CLASS 2 ANNOUNCED

Plano, TX – September 8, 2025 – The Plano Chamber of Commerce and the Plano Works Leadership Foundation are pleased to announce the members of the Propel Executive Leadership Class 2. The roster of executives from leading employers around the region includes business, civic and community-focused, forward-thinking individuals who are committed to the continued growth and improvement of Plano.

“The Propel Executive Leadership Program will help some of our region’s top new executives gain a deep understanding of this area’s economic, political and civic structure, while fostering an even stronger sense of community.” said Plano Works Leadership Foundation Director Leah White.

Spanning nine months from September through May, the program is designed to encompass various areas of interest, including infrastructure support (transportation, utilities, cybersecurity) and quality of life issues such as affordable housing, education, workforce development and healthcare. Equally, it also covers leading business topics, such as the region’s economic vitality, growing industries and our diverse workforce.

The Propel Executive Leadership Program is generously sponsored by ClearSight LASIK & Lens, with additional support from Capital One and Toyota.
