

Jamee Jolly
President & CEO, Plano Chamber of Commerce

Jamee Jolly joined the Plano Chamber of Commerce as President and CEO in September 2010. Under Jamee’s leadership, the Plano Chamber received 5-Star Accreditation from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in 2015. This is the highest rating awarded to local chambers of commerce. Jamee is a mission-driven, senior executive with a proven background in delivering results. Known for her ability to manage cross-functional teams and bring together partners to deliver high-quality solutions, Jamee strives to provide the resources necessary for businesses in the Plano community to thrive.

Previously, Jamee served as Executive Director for the Greater Dallas Restaurant Association, a chapter of the Texas Restaurant Association. Prior to that, in her role as Director of Public Affairs for The Real Estate Council, Jamee was key in securing funding and support for the Woodall Rodgers Deck Park (now referred to as Klyde Warren Park) in downtown Dallas. She also served as lobbyist for the Collin County Association of Realtors, an organization focused on the protection of property rights.

Jamee is a member of the American Society of Association Executives, Plano Rotary Club, and board member of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives. She is a Leadership Plano Class 30 Graduate, City of Plano Government Academy Graduate, Leadership North Texas Graduate, and named Collin County 40 Under 40 by the Collin County Business Press.

With a masters degree in Sport Marketing from Florida State University, Jamee is an avid Florida State Seminole fan. She has an undergraduate degree in kinesiology and sports studies from Texas A&M – Commerce. She and her husband, Marvin, a residential Realtor, “live, work and play” in Plano.

##